Skin rejuvenation

Skin rejuvenation – often referred to as ‘photorejuvenation’ is a series of Intense Pulsed Light treatments that improves the appearance of rosacea, flushing, broken capillaries and thread veins, sun damaged skin, age spots and skin texture. Treatment also improves mild acne scars, tightens pores and softens fine lines. Skin becomes smoother with a more even tone. Photorejuvenation is particularly effective in enhancing the areas often exposed such as face, neck, chest and hands.
